DAILY THOUGHT.

Speech is the chief revelation of the mind, the first visible form that it takes. As the thought, so the speech. To better one's life in the way of simplicity, one must set a watch on his lips and his pen. Let the word be as genuine as the thought, as artless, as valid; thing justly, speak frankly.—Charles Wagner.

Proposes Conscription

(Copyright, Harris & Ewing)

Senator George E. Chamberlain, chairman of Senate committee on Military Affairs, has introduced a bill in Congress proposing conscription for all between the ages of twelve and twenty-three. It is proposed that young men should be organized into cadet corps, and from eighteen to twenty-three into a citizen army.

Harry Ardery will bring the production, "Two Merry Frenches" to town at an early date. This new ten play, written by Ernest Ambrose, is a novelty in many respects, possessing music, wit and a touch of the dramatic, giving Wood and Ward and others of the original cast wide scope to display their various talents. This chorus is pretty, the scenery and costumes superb.

TESTED RECIPES.

Baked Haddock.

One haddock, two tablespoonsful bread crumbs, one dessertspoonful chopped parsley, one teaspoonful chopped herbs, one egg (well beaten), two ounces butter or one tablespoonful oil, pepper and salt to taste. Wash and dry the fish well, mix nearly all the bread crumbs with the herbs, parsley, pepper, salt, half the egg and one-half ounce of butter. Stuff the stomach of the fish with this mixture and sew or skewer it up. Egg and breadcrumb the fish, place it on a greased tin in the shape of an 8, with the oil and pieces of butter, bake for half an hour, basting frequently. Take out the cotton with which the fish was sewn before serving.

Dutch Peach Cake.

Stir two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-half teaspoonful of salt with two cups of flour. Work with one-quarter cupful butter. Add one beaten egg to one cupful of milk, and stir in with flour. Butter pie tin and pour in mixture, pressing into the dough four peaches, peeled, stoned and quartered. Mix one tablespoonful cinnamon and three of sugar and sprinkle over top. Bake until there is a golden crust and the fruit is soft.

FOLEY KIDNEY TABLETS

Roast With Sweet Potatoes.
Mix a pound and a half of chopped beef with a teaspoon of salt and a saltspoon of pepper and a very little chopped onion, also add a tablespoon of melted butter; make into a loaf and place in a greased dripping pan surrounded with sweet potatoes, boiled, peeled and, if large, halved. Roast the potatoes with melted butter and sprinkle with pepper and salt. Bake one hour in a moderate oven. Turn the potatoes so that they may brown evenly on all sides.
